BARBERSHOP HARMONY SOCIETY

THE Rich Knight CHALLENGE

Rich Knight has been involved with choral music all his life.

But since "Barbershop Harmony" entered his life in 1976 he has had a passion to help youth discover and share in this great musical art form.

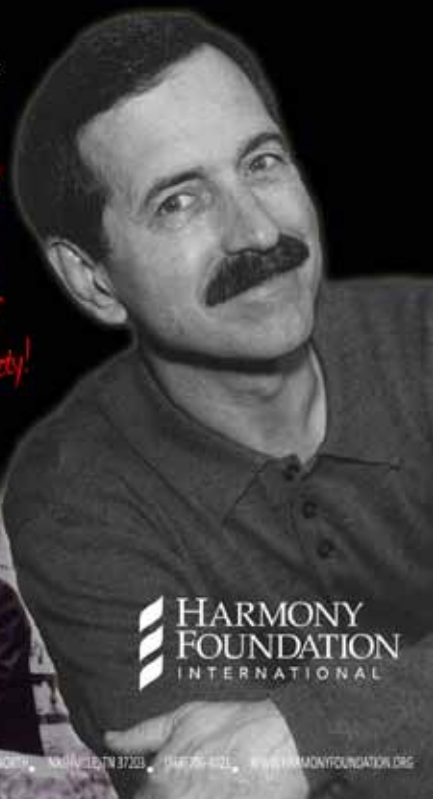

Through his years of performing with the 1993 International Quartet Champions, "Gas House Gang," and more recently his love of coaching quartets and choruses, it has become clear to him that the future of our Society lies with the Youth movement.

Rich has funded a challenge of $100,000 to enroll 100 new President's Council members to Harmony Foundation by the end of the 2013 Midwinter Convention. That's right! Your support will help assure at least $200,000 will be invested in the Youth!

For more information on how you can join the Rich Knight Challenge, please stop by the Harmony Foundation counter located at Rosen Shingle Creek. Or, you can speak to any Foundation representative!

Welcome to the 2013 Midwinter Convention

Hello and welcome to Orlando,

Becky and I are really excited to have the barbershop harmony family here in our backyard this week. While we are hoping for and cautiously optimistic about our famously pleasant Florida winter weather, the elements won't affect us much once we are all snuggled up here in the Rosen. What a great facility for our Midwinter Convention!

If you have been with us at Midwinter for a few years, this convention will knock your socks off. Our seniors quartets just keep getting better every year and this year is likely to be the best and one of the biggest youth chorus festivals in history.

Of course the part that remains the same over the years is the relaxed atmosphere. If you enjoy outstanding performances, rubbing elbows with other barbershop fans and singing with new friends, Midwinter Convention is a terrific place to be.

And speaking of singing with new friends, I hope you will join me in taking every opportunity to put four parts together and ring some chords. I think that is a big part of what makes this such an incredible art form. Midwinter is the best place to see the best and brightest of our future, and I don't mean just during the youth festival. Relish in the number of young people, and not just the guys, singing in the lobbies and halls of the Rosen Hotel and Convention Center. If you make up your mind to do it, you might just be able to sing a song or a tag in a quartet that spans three or more generations.

Of course, there are lots of things to do in Orlando and I hope you will be able to take full advantage of the many entertainment opportunities here, but I can't think of anything I would rather do this weekend than sing with my friends. So, let's make barbershop a verb and turn this art form into a participation sport. Relax, enjoy, and ... 'shop til you drop!

International Convention

June 30 - July 7, 2013

www.barbershop.org/toronto

Executive Director's Welcome

Welcome to the 73rd Midwinter convention, the 6th Annual International Youth Barbershop Chorus Festival and the kick-off to our 75th Anniversary. According to the history books, this event has really changed over the years. In 1940, it started out as an administrative meeting in St. Louis. Our Seniors Quartet Competition was added in 1986 (Tucson) and the Youth Chorus Festival in 2008 (San Antonio). In 1971, attendees enjoyed the convention while cruising their way to the Bahamas (why didn't this continue?) and in 1989, they were doing the harmony hula in Honolulu. I'm told the culture and environment of today's Midwinter is similar to the early years of our International convention, where the schedule wasn't so jam packed and offered many opportunities to sing and have fun with our Barbershop family. This is my first Midwinter and I can't wait to take it all in!

We'd like to thank Harmony Foundation for their sponsorship of our 6th Annual Youth Chorus Festival. Including this year's chorus participants, HFI has helped fund 80 choruses and over 2200 singers and music educators. The Youth Chorus Festival, along with the 70+ annual youth workshops and camps, are the best educational music programs available for young men in the world.

The Society would like to thank the Sunshine District volunteers for their thousands of hours of preparation and smooth execution of this convention. Let's give those "mouse guys" a run for their money. Have a wonderful time at the convention while enjoying all Orlando has to offer. They say around here that "It's a Small World." Let's show them how to "Keep the Whole World Singing!"

Come up and say hello...I'd like to get to know you. Cheers!

CEO & Executive Director

Emcee Joe Cerutti

Joe Cerutti is Master Director of the Alexandria Harmonizers (MAD) and the Pride of Baltimore (SAI).

Joe holds a Bachelor's degree in Music Education from Five Towns College and a Master's degree in Choral Conducting from Boston University.

Joe is a life member of the Barbershop Harmony Society, a Board Member, a charter member of NCCO, and a member of ACDA, MENC, and Chorus America. He is a certified music judge in the Society and the youngest of the nine men in Society history to earn Master Director certification. Joe serves as immediate past chairman of the Society's Chorus Director Development Committee and has served as faculty at Harmony University.

Emcee Keith Hopkins

Throughout the Society, SAI, Harmony Inc., and the Contemporary a Cappella Association, Keith Hopkins is unquestionably one of the most popular emcees in the business. A Society member since 1977, he has provided the ever-jovial voice of reason at uncountable shows and conventions.

He was a full-time Dapper Dan at Walt Disney World, and still sings there occasionally. He also sang in with the Shenanigans, The Internationally

Renowned Fabulous Mavericks, and TV's Amazing Four Man Vocal Band.

Outside the Society, Keith directed The Vocal Gentry, a Grammy-winning mixed amateur a cappella ensemble which sang in many different styles and venues, and performed for four U.S. Presidents.

Emcee Dr. Scott W. Dorsey

Dr. Scott W. Dorsey is the Director of Education & Communication for the American Choral Directors Association in Oklahoma City. A tenured full professor of choral music prior to joining the ACDA National Staff, Scott has led choral programs at Montana State University-Billings, Mount Union College, the University of Northern Iowa, Vennard College, and William Penn College. Choral ensembles under his direction have been honored with invitations to appear before the American Theatre Festival, the Congress of the United States, the College Music Society and before the global conference of the United Methodist Church in Cleveland's famed Severance Hall.

Nationally, he has served ACDA continually since 1992 as the bibliographer of the Choral Journal, and he served on ACDA's Youth and Student Activities Committee for thirteen years, with almost half of those years spent as the committee's National Chair.

Scott holds the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Choral Conducting from the University of Iowa, the Master of Arts degree in Choral Conducting from California State University, and the Bachelor of Arts degree in Voice from Nebraska Wesleyan University.

New Harvest Singers

Resisting-a-Rest

2010 Seniors Champion

Bruce LaMarte, Tenor

Thomas Conner, Lead

Steven Wamaar, Baritone

Lee Hanson, Bass

Resisting-A-Rest began singing together the summer of 2007 and that same year won the right to represent the Pioneer District in the senior quartet contest. After several medalist finishes, they brought home gold in Tampa in 2010.

Over Easy

2011 Seniors Champion

Alan Reese, Tenor

Mark Hannum, Bass

Carl Ondrus, Lead

Glenn Siebert, Baritone

Over Easy, from the Johnny Appleseed District, zoomed to the top in 2011, winning gold after having placed 16th in 2010, and 6th in both 2008 and 2009. They consider themselves “just regular guys”, and hope that their gold medal has encouraged other men to work to achieve success as well.

Mass Youth Chorus

AISQC Chorus

Main Street

www.mainstreetqt.com

2012 5th Place Bronze Medalist

Mike McGee, Baritone

Myron Whittlesey, Bass

Tony DeRosa, Lead

Roger Ross, Tenor

Main Street members have spent a combined 100+ years singing with past quartets such as Keepsake, Max Q, Metropolis, Platinum and Rounders. While their involvement in the Society is impressive, all four members have been or currently are Dapper Dans at Walt Disney World and/or have sung with the Voices of Liberty, and have performed in film, television, radio and musical theater.

Rusty Pipes

2012 Seniors Champion

Dale Fetick, Tenor

Carl Taylor, Lead

Jay Hawkins, Bass

Tom Rouse, Baritone

Rusty pipes? Not! They clearly proved they're just kidding about the name when they won the gold in Tucson in 2012. They had just formed in 2011, but three of the guys were no strangers to gold. Jay and Dale both won gold with Marquis in 1995 and Carl won seniors gold with The Barons in 2003.

Masterpiece

2012 4th Place Bronze Medalist

Medalist

Alan Gordon, Baritone

Brett Littlefield, Bass

Patric Haedtler, Lead

Rob Menaker, Tenor

Masterpiece is defined as a supreme artistic achievement. In vocal music, it is the marriage of multiple efforts to seamlessly become one. Hailing from the 8-time world champion chorus Masters of Harmony, all four of these guys have enjoyed success in various groups and have finally come together to share a unique sound and experience with their audience.

The Liberty Voices

The Liberty Voices is a world famous, eight-part a cappella group that sings Americana, folk and patriotic songs. They have toured the country, been featured on national television and various parades, performed at national as well as international conventions, and have even performed for five United States Presidents! Liberty Voices has been called "America's PREMIER a cappella stylists... and the United States vocal ambassadors to the world!"

Alexander Löfstedt, Tenor

Martin Jangö, Bass

Jonathan von Döbeln, Baritone

In their own words, these guys were still wondering a week after their collegiate win in 2012 “whether it all was real or not!” In Portland the same week, they also managed to place 19th in what they call the “big boy contest”, and received the Dealer’s Choice Award as the highest scoring rookie quartet in the competition. They also captured a 4th place bronze medal with the 4th place chorus from Sweden, Zero8!

Jeff Hunkin, Tenor

Marcellus Washburn, Lead

Will Hunkin, Baritone

The Musical Island Boys merge harmonic excellence with the elegance of their Pacific roots. With a combined 40 years of world-wide performing experience, they made history in 2006 by becoming the first quartet of any kind from outside the U.S. to win the International Collegiate Contest. Their 2009 debut in quartet competition won them 10th place, and they moved up to 4th in 2010 and 2nd in 2011 and 2012.

2013 International Convention June 30 - July 7, 2013

International Convention 2013 will definitely be a "bright lights - big city" deal! If you're going to miss a convention, don't let it be this one! Not only is Toronto a world-class city, but also this will be our 75th Anniversary, and Toronto is going to help us celebrate it in style! We'll have historic displays of past costumes, trophies and memorabilia from our previous 74 conventions, and districts will have historic displays as well. The Swedish quartets Ringmasters and Lemon Squeezy will be coming back for their swan song performances, and we'll have the thrill of Ambassadors of Harmony once again as well!
